“NO ONE GETS LEFT BEHIND”

INTERVENTION EXPLAINED

- Each week we offer a different range of sessions.
- These alternate, week 1 and week 2.
- Next week will be week 2.
- Staff will invite students to stay behind to complete additional work in their subject area.
- When a subject has priority week, then other subjects must allow students to go to these sessions ahead of theirs to ensure that the system is fair.
- An invitation to these sessions may be to complete coursework or extra revision to prepare for the exams
- If your child does not get invited, please do not panic. The exam season is still 6months away. This will change as we get closer to the exams.
