

Parents@Park

A week of lots of dates, trips and other information share!

This can only mean we are deep into Autumn term two with lots of great opportunities and experiences both taking place and planned ahead.... and that is before we even begin to start to think about Christmas!!

Please read on for all dates, trips and information share - Year 11 parents, do not miss the Parents Evening invite and for the alpine snow sport lovers amongst us- the ski trip launch and information can be found within this week's edition too (I am sure your children have been reminding you of this fact daily!!)

Please may we remind parents that Parents@Park is not complete and live until the email and MCAS alert is shared, it is edited on Friday until the email confirms completion and readiness. With thanks

Rewards, Rewards, Rewards!

As I write this week's edition of Parents@Park, I have just been greeted by a number of our younger students who had just received their Student of the Week badges for the first time - they were proudly adding them to their blazers and very happy with their win! It is so rewarding for staff to see students taking pride in their work and enjoying their successes.

Huge shout out and congratulations to this week's winners.

- An invitation to Year 11 Parents Evening Thursday 7th December 2023 can be found here with instructions for how to attend video calls and booking guidance here

- The ski trip is back!!!

After much build up, the eagerly awaited initial information for the next Park High School Ski trip can be found here. This is possibly one of our most memorable trips and it feels so brilliant to be adding the trip back to the calendar after Covid stopped play.

- Annual Year 8 French Trip

The year 8 French trip is also a firm favourite in the Park calendar. Sadly, however, this year due to the Olympics taking place in Paris we were unable to secure accommodation for July 2024. BUT fear not! We have booked to take 90 students in July 2025 and therefore year 8 students will still have the chance to go on the French trip when in Year 9. More communication to follow in the coming months. Thank you. Miss Mitchell Head of MFL
